

LIFE CONCERT ENTERTAINMENT

Life Concert is one of the most active companies in the live entertainment business in Brazil and stands out for its innovation in productions of shows, concerts, musicals and symphonic concerts.

With a casting more than 3.000 artists, the company stands out mainly in the music market, working in productions with the vocal group "Il Divo", the English singer "Louis Hoover", Italian tenor Emanuele Servidio, the famous Brazilian TV actress Claudia Raia and more. Over the years, it has reached an audience of over 150,000 people.

Through a partnership with BRZ Culture & Entertainment, it started a performance aimed at the international market, being the official representative of exclusive musical and theatrical productions, which unite concert music with the most varied genres, such as the tributes "Queen Experience in Concert", "Abba Experience in Concert", "Bee Gees Experience in Concert", "Pink Floyd Experience in Concert" and "Anime Live Show". In addition to his own shows "Whitney – The Queen in Concert" and "What's impossible for you? Marcos Rossi sings Sinatra".

Currently, the company, led by conductor Eduardo Pereira, is preparing to enter the Musical Theater business with productions of Broadway-style shows, after obtaining the licenses for the musicals "Little Miss Sunshine" and "Breathe" through an agreement with MTI (Music Theater International), scheduled to premiere in 2022.
